Hear Ye! Hear Ye! Hear Ye!!

THE subscriber having taken the agency for the sale of Burdiet and Bartlett's Grecian Caoutchouc Oil Polish, is now prepared to furnish the article to store keepers at Manufacturer's prices.

This article is composed of neats foot oil and Gutta Percha, acting as a preserver of leather as well as polish. An article of this kind has long been needed, as every one knows that common blacking will not polish or oil over grease.

The attention of livery stable keepers, and those keeping carriages and harnesses, is invited to this article, as it is unsurpassed for the purpose of cleaning carriage tops, harnesses, &c. It is put up in large size boxes, convenient for the use of livery stable keepers, and also smaller sizes for the use of everybody who wish to purchase the best blacking in the market.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of PATENTS

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 75 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST.,

BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries.—Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patens or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below give proof that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber's; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services as moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful patentel ouers with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHAS. MASON," Com issioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring Inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable in putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDM. BURKE,"

Late Commissioner of Patents.

Boston, February 8, 1858.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases. JOHN TAGGART."

From Sept. 17th, 1857, to June 17th, 1858, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made, on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

SONG OF THE SAILOR.

They tell us that the deep sea hath,
More dangers than the shore;
They whisper tales of ocean's wrath,
And breakers' deadly roar.
How oft the ruddy cheek will pale
To leave the earth behind;
How oft the glowing heart will quail
Before the tempest wind.
We fear the billows' dash—but why?
There's One who'll guard and save—
There's One whose wide and watchful eye
Sleeps not above the wave.

Why should the soul withdraw its trust
When on the foamy track?
He who gave life, both wise and just,
Knows when to ask it back.
Tho' death were nigh, I wouldn't shrink,
My faith, my hope, should rest
Upon my Maker's will, and think,
Whatever He willed, the best;
I'd ever trust the ruling hand,
How'er the storm might rave—
For He that watches o'er the sea
Sleeps not above the wave.

COVERDALE MARRIED.

The Sequel and Conclusion of Harry Coverdale's Courtship.

[Concluded.]

'Have a cigar?' said Tom, holding out the case.

Harry, without speaking, made a gesture of dissent.

'Oh, nonsense!' urged Tom; 'it's no use giving way and weeping, you know. It's not so bad after all. I dare say the fellow won't die, and if he does he'll be no great loss. Come, have a cigar.

Harry had not energy enough to persist in refusing. He took a cigar and lighted it mechanically.

What wonders that cigar did! Those who do not smoke cannot understand it. It seems a silly sort of thing to puff away at a roll of tobacco; but smoking, if not a philosophic operation, is a great help towards practical common-sense philosophy. As the smoke curled upward about Harry's nose, his dizzine-s cleared away as though it had a greater affinity for the vapor. Then there was the necessity of hiding the forbidden luxury as each fresh station was reached, and as the train rolled on and cigar after cigar was lighted, he and Tom were talking about their plans and prospects.

Tom had arranged everything up to a certain point. He had given Flint the address of an hotel in town where he intended to go to, and directed that worthy to make inquiries about the condition of Captain Snawley and write to him under an assumed name. 'Flint's safe to do it all right,' said Tom 'and when we get his report we can decide upon the next step. If Snawley is getting well, we needn't bother ourselves; if he goes wrong, we must take a trip across the Channel.'

So it was settled. They got to the end of the journey, unseonced themselves comfortably in smg quarters, and waited for Flint's letter. The postman, next morning, brought that important epistle. It was folded without much regard to the parallelism of its sides, sealed with a blotch of wax, stamped with the top of a ramrod, and directed upside down in a hand which evinced that the post office authorities were not easily puzzled by hieroglyphics. Here are the contents, as Tom and Harry with some trouble spelled them out:—

'Honerd Sur Captain Snawle is verrey bad as can be. I see the doctors boy hand afterwards doctor Makister hand e say e earnt bewars e say a-e allers coffen and spittenhup of blu which is a band sine hand e dusent think has e kan Live long Mesis Balderstiug is jest wild and crying er hies hout hand e his unsensibul I av gone to belston to poot this in the post has Misses Kummins as kep the post hoffice a ogsale no e me hand mite get spiing wich wudent dew hand if ur riets to me direckt to james Steal at the post hoffice belston til cald for; your humbel servant tu komnuand james flint i avent ben to the park hand don't no nothink habout Misses Koverdell wich i shall fine hout wen i rite agen.'

This letter completely dampedHarry's spirits again, and Tom was more than a little discomposed about it. Not that he cared much about Snawley, or would have been inconsolable if the house of Snawley had been extinct; but it was vexatious, just as the hunting season was beginning and he had taken the hounds. 'But what is done can't be helped,' quoth Tom, 'and it's no use crying over spilt milk. We must make part of the English colony at Boulogne for a time. The steamer starts to-morrow morning at three from somewhere down by London bridge, and we had better get on board to-night.'

A Matrimonial Adventure—Charity Fair and Curiosities—Death of Hon. Theodore Sedgwick—Skating on the Central Park—Stevens Re-sentenced—Large Robbery by Boys, &c.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.

You have doubtless heard of matrimonial advertisements. Formerly, it was only now and then that these economical mantraps were to be seen, but, of late, hardly a day passes in which one or another of our papers does not contain the stereotyped announcement that some "beautiful, accomplished, amiable, and wealthy young lady," or "prepossessing young bachelor, very rich and very lonely," desires to correspond with some equally tender-hearted individual of the opposite sex, with a view to matrimony. A good many of these advertisers are simple-hearted boarding school girls, who are never so much in their element as when in mischief, and who no more expect to get husbands by such means than to be struck by lightning; but by far the largest number are, to use plain language, instigated by the old serpent himself, and avail themselves of it is medium to swindle and ruin every foolish individual they can inveigle into their meshes.

The following incident in this connection, which was related to me as a fact, I give you as a "specimen number." The gentleman in the case, whom I shall call Capt. N., is an ex-officer of the Nicaraguan army under Walker—a well read, courteous, gallant Southerner, a perfect stranger to fear, and one withal who, in the course of his travels, has seen the "elephant," trunk and tail, in his most lofty proportions. Sometime during the summer the Captain's attention was attracted by one of these matrimonial advertisements, as usual mounted in brass. Lady—young, refined, prepossessing—parents dead—her guardian a crabbed old uncle, &c., &c. The Captain nibbed his pen, and in the usual otto-of-rose style, wrote a reply. It was successful, and the next day brought a letter from the fair advertiser, stating that his note was the only one, out of some sixty she had received, which she thought to be prompted by the sincerity of a well-bred gentleman. Now, flattery is a good deal like Champagne—it goes straight to the head, and our friend was by no means an exception to the rule. He liked his letter in every way. It was couched in well chosen language, written with that graceful carelessness so peculiarly feminine, and the gilt-edged note-paper and dainty seal was a very compliment in itself. The captain nibbled again. A correspondence set in. Friendship led to love, love to a great many foolish ejaculations, as usual; and their mutual devotion on paper, at the end of two or three months, terminated in a personal interview. He was invited to call at her own residence. He thought that was certainly a mark of sincerity; so he went—found a brown-stone edifice, lace curtains, genteel neighborhood, respectable exterior, and everything apparently all right. Ringing the bell, he was ushered into the parlor, and, all tremulous with emotion, awaited the happiness he had so gorgeously anticipated in the society of his fair correspondent. A moment or two of impatience, a feminine rustle, and she appeared—not the picture of his imagination, but a large, green-eyed, gross-looking woman, apparently about thirty-five years of age, and with no more sentiment in her homely face, to use the description I received, than in a pile of brick. Entering into conversation in an easy, off-hand manner, after a few preliminaries, she stated that she had commenced the correspondence from a pure love of adventure, that she had carried it out all that she had intended, and being a married woman, had told her husband of the whole affair. He with a friend was in an adjoining room, and they had determined that if her correspondent came to the house, he should ei her pay a sum of money, or take a thrashing within an inch of his life for his "impertinent familiarity." At the same time, she went to the door which led into the hall, and, locking it, put the key in her pocket. Here then was the animal with all his feathers off. As you may suppose, the Captain was considerably surprised, but having faced death more times than he has fingers and toes, was by no means alarmed. Fastening a pair of keen, gray eyes upon her, he quietly told the woman who and what he was,—that he was acquainted with black mailing in all its forms, and (drawing a revolver) would be very happy to see the individuals who intended to thrash it out of him. "Moreover," said he, "I waste no more words on you. Give me that key, or take the consequences of your rascality." The woman hesitated, calling "William, William!" but a click of the pistol told her there was no mistaking that desperate summons, and with an oath at being thus foiled, she reluctantly threw the key upon the table, and, receiving the cool "good afternoon" of the Captain, had the mortification of seeing him unlock the door, and leave the premises with his money all in his pockets, and "sounder on the goose" than ever. Since then he has been rather shy of matrimonial advertisements, and firmly believes with the poet, that "in wedlock a species of lottery lies."

But I have been longer than I intended and must serve up my remaining dish of items in small bits.

A Charity Fair, under the auspices of the Sisters of Mercy, is now open at the Academy of Music, which in point of attraction, has not been equalled in this city for many years. Among the objects on exhibition is an autograph book containing signatures of Queen Elizabeth, William Penn, George III., George IV., several of the Louises, nearly all the Presidents, and a great number of the most eminent names in royalty, religion, literature, art, politics, and science. There is also an old Bible, written in manuscript 500 years ago,—before the invention of the art of printing—a curiosity for which $500 has been offered.

The poor this year seem poorer and plentier than ever, and notwithstanding the systematic measures which have been adopted for their relief by all denominations, many will doubtless suffer from the want of food and raiment.

Fodder of every description is enormously high. Meals range from twelve to fifteen cents per pound—poultry from nine to twelve. The latter are consequently in general demand, and the markets present an array of gobblers and ganders, which remind one of the fossil remains of other generations. These are necessaries, but in looking over statistics, I have been surprised to observe the immense amount of imported delicacies which are in common use all over the country. Time was when these things were confined to the more aristocratic portion of the community, but now more than two thirds of the importations of one of the wealthiest and oldest firms in this city—that of John Duncan & Sons—consist of the choice wines, condiments, teas and foreign delicacies, which the public have acquired a taste for and demanded should be supplied them. A familiar example is Lea & Perrin's Worcesterhire sauce, a pungent aromatic, titillating, delectable compound for the table, of which the above house are the sole agents for this country. Ten years ago it was hardly known, but the epicures of the generation discovered that it "makes what's homely savory," and to-day notwithstanding the dozen imitations which abound, it is a standard attachment of every properly appointed larder, and is found upon the table of every well-to-do wayside caravansary. We grow luxurious as we grow civilized. Eating and drinking are as much matters of taste and cultivation, as the love of art—and dinner is made the moral hinge on which the happiness of man has swung ever since Eve ate apples in the Garden of Eden.

During the past week, the New York Bar has lost by death one of its brightest ornaments—Hon. Theodore Sedgwick, U. S. District Attorney. The President has appointed as his successor Hon. Amasa J. Parker, a ripe scholar and sound lawyer.

Stephens, the poisoner of his wife, has again been sentenced to be hung—making the third time—an instance of the law's delay, and the obstacles which may be made to interfere with the administration of justice. Nothing can now save him but the interference of the executive.

Two boys have just been arrested for robbing their employers of $15,000 worth of jewelry. One pretended to have been gagged and tied by the other, and was found in that condition; but the officers suspected the truth, and tracing the matter up, discovered not only the young rascals, but the whole amount of the property stolen. Their locality will probably be settled for some time to come.

With the sharp, biting weather of a week past, winter and winter sports may be said to have fairly commenced. Skating by both sexes is this year to be more fashionable than ever before, and the most extensive arrangements have been made at the Central Park, on the new forty acre pond, for their accommodation. A pond for ladies has been provided, to afford them an opportunity for learning to skate without being subjected to the gaze of the crowd; huts are erected and warmed so that children can enjoy the scene,—a system of signals, observable from all parts of the city, showing when the pond is in good order, has been arranged,—and other conveniences, adopted to make the Park what it was intended to be—a great public servant. A new style of skate, invented by a Mr. E. Wirths, one of our importers, will be much used this year, and supplies an important desideratum, the improvement consisting of a sort of leather shoe firmly fastened to the Skate, whereby the feet are kept perfectly warm. By means of a simple mechanical contrivance, the shoe is fitted to the foot before leaving home, so that, arriving on the ice, it can be instantly adjusted, and the fair skater in a few seconds is equipped for a race. The same improvement is to be applied to gentlemen's skates.

Lola Montez, who has recently returned from Great Britain, this week lectured to an audience of three thousand people. She has become very religious.

Gen. Scott, who arrived from San Juan by the last California steamer, is in better physical condition than he has been for a number of years, and his trip to the Pacific in both a personal and political aspect has been productive of the most gratifying results. FONTAINE.

THIRTY-SIXTH CONGRESS.
FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.

SENATE.

Not in session.

HOUSE.

Mr. Larabee (Wis.) had read from The Milwaukee Free Democrat a report of a meeting of Germans, in which sympathy was expressed for John Brown; and also an editorial in the same paper, in spirit with the proceedings of the meeting. Mr. L. then said he had been assured that the sentiments of the meeting were not those of the leading German citizens of Wisconsin. Mr. L. then proceeded to defend that part of Wisconsin against the attacks made upon it, and called upon South Americans to prevent the election of a Republican Speaker. He also reviewed the so-called "irrepressible conflict" doctrine of Mr. Seward. He was followed by Mr. Vallandigham, who rose to make a correction in a report of his remarks. He had been represented as having said that Mr. Sherman had not disavowed unnecessary attacks upon Slavery in the States, while he had stated just the reverse. Nor did he say that he was bound to the South and its institution of Slavery; but he did say that he was not a Southern man. He said that within the Constitution and Union he was a Western Sectionalist, and that he cut himself from both North and South. Two votes for Speaker were then had, the first showing: for Mr. Sherman, 111 votes; for Mr. Bocock, 85; for Mr. Botelor, 23; scattering, 9. The second vote stood: for Mr. Sherman, 111; for Mr. Bocock, 84; for Mr. Botelor, 15; for Mr. Briggs, (N. Y. Amer.) 9; scattering, 9. There being no choice, the House adjourned.

The New York papers chronicle the death of a man who lost his life by skating till he was tired and then lying on the ice to rest. The cold struck to his vitals and speedily terminated his existence.

The Great Indian Remedy
— For Females. —

DR. MATTISON'S INDIAN EMMENAGOGUE.

This celebrated female medicine possessing virtues unknown of anything else of the kind, is prepared from an Indian plant, which has been used by the natives for the same purpose from time immemorial, and is now for the first time offered to the public. A knowledge of this wondrous plant was obtained from an Oneida Chief, who lived near Syracuse, New York, to a very great age. It is neatly put up in two ounce bottles, with full directions for using, and is warranted to cure anyone of obstruction of the MONTHLY SICKNESS—often in TWENTY-FOUR HOURS, and that, too, after all other remedies have been tried in vain. This may seem incredible, but if a trial is made in ANY case THE PRICE WILL BE REFUNDED.

OLD SKENANDOAH,

PURELY VEGETABLE, CONTAINING NOTHING IN THE LEAST INJURIOUS TO HEALTH, AND MAY BE TAKEN WITH PERFECT SAFETY AT ALL TIMES.

LADIES, therefore, in want of something RELIABLE, had better send for the INDIAN EMMENAGOGUE, instead of wasting time and money in trying other things, which ALWAYS either impair or ascertain, and therefore NEVER can afford a CERTAIN REMEDY. Sent by express to all parts of the country.

Sold ONLY at DR. MATTISON'S REMEDIAL INSTITUTE for SPECIAL DISEASES, No. 28 Union street, Providence, R. I.

SENT FREE by enclosing one stamp as above, a pamphlet on DISEASES OF WOMEN and on private and Chronic Maladies generally; also CIRCULARS giving full information with undoubted references and testimonials, WITHOUT WHICH NO MEDICINE OF THE KIND IS DESERVING OF ANY CONFIDENCE WHATEVER.

Orders promptly attended to.—See advertisement in this paper.

MR. EDITOR:

I understand that an itinerant quack, by the name of "Dr. Writing," who has been travelling through the country giving "private lectures to ladies only," took occasion, in several instances to say publicly that there never was such a man as Skenandoah at or near Syracuse, N. Y.—that he "lived there himself," and that "it was all a lie." The following sketch taken from "Annals and Recollections of Oneida County, N. Y., by Pomroy Jones, Esq., publisher at Rome N. Y., in 1857, will vindicate me as a man of truth, and at the same time will show up a vile slanderer in his true character.

Among other celebrated Oneida Chiefs, Mr. Jones thus speaks of Skenandoah:—

"But the name which stands more prominently on the pages of history, and which will be remembered until the original inhabitants of this continent are forgotten, is that of Skenandoah, "the white man's friend." He was born about the year 1706. In his youth and early manhood, he was very savage and intemperate. In 1735, while attending upon a treaty in Albany he became excessively drunk at night, and in the morning found himself robbed of all his ornaments and clothing, his pride revolting at his self-degradation, he resolved never to drink "fire water" again,—a resolution which he kept to the end of his life. In appearance he was noble, dignified and commanding, being in height much over six feet and the tallest Indian in his nation. He possessed a powerful frame, for at the age of 85 he was a full match for any of his tribe either as to his powers of endurance, his strength, or speed on foot. But it was chiefly to his eloquence and his mental powers that he owed his reputation and influence. In his riper years he was one of the noblest counsellors among the North American tribes: he possessed a vigorous mind and was alike sagacious, active and persevering. As an enemy he was terrible,—as a friend and ally he was mild and gentle in his disposition, and faithful to his engagements. His vigilance once saved from massacre the inhabitants of the little village of German Flats, and in the Revolutionary War his influence induced the Oneidas to take up arms in favor of the Americans. Soon after Mr. Kirkland established his mission at Oneida, SKENANDOAH embraced the doctrines of the Gospel, and for the rest of his life lived a consistent Christian. He often repeated his wish that he might be buried by the side of his old teacher and spiritual father, that he might "go up with him at the great resurrection." Although he could speak but little English, and in his extreme old age was entirely blind, yet many sought his company. In conversation he was highly decorous, evincing constant care not to give pain by any remark or reply. Upon one occasion he was visited by a party of young ladies who found him at his house reclining upon his couch. He was then blind. After the introduction by Miss Kirkland who was one of the party: Skenandoah asked, "are these ladies married?" Upon being answered in the negative he responded, "It is well, for there are many bad men!" To a friend who called upon him a short time before his decease, he thus expressed himself by an interpreter: "I am an aged hemlock; the winds of an hundred winters have whistled through my branches. I am dead at the top. The generation to which I belonged have run away and left me; why? I live. the Great Spirit only knows; pray to my Jesus that I may have patience to wait for my appointed time to die." An eloquence and beauty of sentiment which have been admired by millions in many lands, and which have been seldom equalled by the most eloquent or best of ancient or modern times

After listening to prayers read at his bedside by his great-granddaughter, SKENANDOAH yielded up his spirit on the 11th day of March 1816, aged about 110 years! Agreeably to a promise made by the family of Mr. Kirkland his remains were brought to Clinton and buried by the side of his spiritual father Mr. Kirkland a short distance south of the road leading up to the College. A handsome monument stands in the College burying ground with the following inscription:

SKENANDOAH.

"This Monument is erected by the Northern Missionary Society in testimony of respect for the memory of SKENANDOAH, who died in the peace and hope of the Gospel on the 11th day of March, 1816. Wise, eloquent and brave, he long swayed the councils of his Tribe, whose confidence and affection he so eminently enjoyed. In the War of the Revolution he espoused the cause of the Colonies, and ever afterwards remained a firm friend to the United States. Under the ministry of the Rev. Mr. Kirkland he embraced the doctrines of the Gospel: and having exhibited their power in a long life adorned by every Christian virtue, he fell asleep in Jesus at the advanced age of over 110 years." Annals and Recollections of Oneida County, by Pomroy Jones Esq. Rome N. Y. 1857."

FOUSEL'S PABULUM VITÆ,
THE GREAT FRENCH REMEDY,
POSSESSES extraordinary properties for the speedy and permanent cure of CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, COLDS, and all PULMONARY DISEASES.

This celebrated specific is now universally acknowledged to be infinitely superior to all other preparations for the cure of Pulmonary Disease, both from its innocent nature and its most astonishing curative properties; it being the only remedy known that will arrest the development of Tubercles in the Lungs, or restore the vital functions of the pulmonary organs to their normal condition. Its invaluable properties have obtained for it the highest recommendations and praise from some of the most eminent physicians and chemists in the country; while the best and surest proofs of its merits are afforded by the numerous testimonials of its great efficacy in conquering disease, which are constantly received from our most respectable citizens. Invalids in all stages of pulmonary disease should not fail to give it a trial, as it can be administered to the most delicate and feeble with perfect safety and certain relief; and we herewith insert a few testimonials for their encouragement, selected from hundreds of like import.

Certificate of Dr. A. A. HAYES, in reference to the unequalled virtues of this great discovery.

This preparation, by chemical analysis, was proved to be free from opium or any of its compounds; nor were any of the alkaloids present. It does not contain any mercurial or mineral substance, but consists wholly of volatile, diffusible agents, which afford vapors freely at a moderate temperature. Most of the substances present are efficiently used in alleviating pulmonary disease; but the device by which they are combined is new and original, and adapts the compound to inhalation, or other modes of administration.

Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer,
16 Boylston Street, Boston, Dec. 19, 1857.

TESTIMONIAL from the Assistant Superintendent of Health:

BOSTON, Oct. 5, 1859.

SIR:—It affords me great pleasure in recommending to those troubled with Pulmonary Complaints the use of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ; and my own experience has shown that for Coughs and Colds it possesses qualities of great merit, and I would most cheerfully recommend its use to those troubled with the above complaints, so common to our climate.

Respectfully yours,
(Signed) DANIEL B. CURTIS,
To F. J. LAFORME, Room 12, City Hall.

F. J. LAFORME, Esq.:

Dear Sir—This may certify that I have used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, and I consider it the best article that I have ever used for pulmonary complaints. My wife has used it for severe colds, and its effect was magical; and I have no objection to your referring in any way to me that you deem expedient.

I have given the above named a fair trial, and with confidence advise all that are afflicted with colds or pulmonary complaints to try it.

Full Length Steel Engravings of
WASHINGTON AND EVERETT.
Including a view of Mount Vernon,

In the Engraving of Washington. These splendid engravings are from original paintings by Hicks and engraved on steel in the highest style of Art. They are each 25x30 inches, each CONTAINING SIX SQUARE FEET. So many coarse, miserable pictures have been palmed upon the public as works of art—and especially in cheap, black and muddy engravings—that it is difficult to convince persons of taste that they are safe in ordering what they have not first seen. We have paid the first artists their own prices, amounting to MANY THOUSAND DOLLARS, to produce ENGRAVINGS REALLY BEAUTIFUL, as well as the BEST PORTRAITS, and that shall be SPLENDID ORNAMENTS TO ANY PARLOR. ☞ Opinions that can be relied on.

☞ The editor of the New York Observer says:—"These engravings are genuine works of art—the likenesses are admirable. The portrait of Mr. Everett will take precedence of all others."

☞ New York Christian Advocate says: They are among the finest engravings we have ever seen, and THE PUBLISHERS ARE FULLY RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL THEY PROMISE."

TERMS, ALMOST GRATIS,

We will send, POST PAID, securely packed in rollers—

EITHER ENGRAVING and a $3 Magazine, one year, for $3.

BOTH ENGRAVINGS, and a $3 Magazine one year, for $4.

☞ AGENTS who remit $30 at one time, will have an extra copy of of each engraving. The Magazines are

Harper's,
The Knickerbocker,
Godey's Lady's Book,
The Atlantic,
Blackwood.

—By special arrangement, the entire year's subscription to the Magazines is paid over by us to their publishers, and subscribers receive their supply for the year direct from their respective publication offices. The cost of the engravings is paid only by the difference between the lowest wholesale and the regular price of the Magazines.

—Engravings sent at once, and subscriptions to periodicals commence with current issue, unless otherwise ordered. Money at our risk if proof is retained of having been mailed. First impressions are best, therefore send early. Address

A WORD TO INVALIDS.

All who have any serious or troublesome disease will very naturally seek advice somewhere, and this leads us to say a few words on the choice of a physician. And first, set all quacks, impostors and humbugs aloue. If you have an intelligent physician in your vicinity apply to him first of all, and follow his directions explicitly, and follow them for a sufficient length of time, and he will probably cure you; if not, then apply to one who makes your disease a specialty, for no physician in general practice, no matter how eminent, can treat a fever, disease, or class of diseases, as successfully as one of the same, ability who makes such diseases a specialty, and devotes his whole attention to them. Educated physicians hitherto have stood aloof from making private diseases a specialty, and hence they have been monopolized by the quacks.—The class of loafing charlatans by the profession, has too long stood in the way of this most desirable result. What disgrace is there in treating a class of diseases specially that all physicians to a an general practice? Ricord of Paris, and Acton of London, both make Private Diseases a specialty, and yet their fame is an enviable one it is world-wide. It is in fact the only remedy for one of the most heinous and destructive systems of quackery in private diseases practiced in all the large cities throughout the country.—But to return. I said to quack and impostors alone. Their advertisements fill the newspapers, and are well calculated to deceive the inexperienced, made up as they are of the most extravagant pretensions, but without a shadow of evidence of the truth of what they say. Advertising themselves to sin, but deceptive advertisements are an abomination, and no one who is [illegible] is entitled to any confidence whatever who does not give to the public the [illegible] guarantees of his honesty and his skill.

In offering my services in a specialty which has heretofore been almost exclusively in the hands of impostors, I ask no more than to employ me who is not fully convinced that I shall treat him courteously, deal honorably and with the strictest fidelity, and give him the best possible chance for a speedy and permanent cure. Blood Food!

Dr. Bronson, having been so far reduced by consumption, as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery by the most eminent of the medical profession, and also by himself—a regular physician of twenty years' practice—as a last resort, conceived the idea of ANALYZING THE BLOOD, and applying the [illegible] physiology to the more immediate [illegible] and elevation of the tone of the Blood on the health and [illegible] The result was the discovery of BLOOD FOOD, which [illegible] restored to [illegible] health. If you have any complaints of a consumptive tendency, Coughs, Cold, Head ache, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of appetite, or pain in the side, lose no time in procuring a bottle of the "BLOOD FOOD." If you are suffering from Nervous Debility, or your sleep is broken and disturbed, if your Spirits are Depressed or your Organs relaxed, you will find in this medicine a remedy by commencing with a tea drops. In the most severe cases of dyspepsia, the patient can here find the most efficient and grateful relief. A benefit is always experienced after taking only one bottle. In Male or Female Complaints and Weakness, the sufferer, after having other remedies in vain, may rest assured, that a certain cure will result from the use of two or three bottles. WASHINGTON MATTERS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—According to the conversation among the democratic members of the House, they will seize upon the first favorable occasion to reunite their forces, which were scattered to-day, after the withdrawal of Mr. Bocock from the contest for Speaker. The bestowal of their votes on various gentlemen was an experiment to ascertain on whom the largest number might ultimately be concentrated.

Many mail contractors are now here, and purpose holding a meeting to-morrow night in relation to their interests as connected with the Post Office Department. Unless appropriations be made before the 1st of January to meet the liabilities of the government for this service, a very large amount of its paper, it is said, will go to protest.

The democratic Senators, having, in caucus, completed the list of committees, it has been handed to the opposition to fill up the blanks. Mr. Mason remains as chairman of the Committee on Foreign Affairs; Mr. Clay on Commerce; Mr. Yulee on Post Office; Mr. Green on Territories,—Mr. Mallory on Naval Affairs,—Mr. Bayard on the Judiciary, and Mr. Brown on the District of Columbia.

THE STATE NORMAL SCHOOL.—The vacancy occurring in such a deplorable manner in the direction of the State Normal School has been temporarily filled by the appointment of Daniel Goodwin, Esq., as Principal. The Governor and Public School Commissioner unite in the expediency of this selection, and their action in that regard will meet the unanimous approbation of the many who know how ably and faithfully Mr. G. has discharged his duties as the lamented Colburn's assistant in the school. It is but a few weeks since he left that post to become a student at the Episcopal Theological Seminary, New York. There is at present a vacation of that institution, but we must hope that Mr. Goodwin's provisional incumbrances will not be terminated by anything but one of a permanent character in our noble Normal School.—*Prov. A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases, Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumious complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints.

HOWARD ASSOCIATION, PHILADELPHIA.

A Benevolent Institution, established by special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic diseases.

THE Howard Association, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by sexual diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their consulting Surgeon, as a Charitable Act worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases in all their form and to give Medical Advice Gratis, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty to Furnish Medicines Free of Charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.

The Directors of the Association, in their annual report upon the treatment of sexual diseases, for the year ending July 1st, 1858, expresses the highest satisfaction with the success which has attended the labors of the consulting surgeon in the cure of Spermatorrhœ, Seminal Weakness, Impotence, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Syphilis, the vice of Onanism or self abuse, &c., and order a continuance of the same plan for the ensuing year.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal to this very important and despised cause.

An admirable Report on Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, the vice of Onanism, Masturbation or Self-Abuse, and other Diseases of the Sexual Organs, by the consulting Surgeon, which will be sent by mail, (in a sealed envelope,) free of charge, on the receipt of two stamps for postage.

A CARD TO THE LADIES.

Dr. Duroscon's Golden Periodical Pills for Females. Perfectly harmless, yet wonderfully and powerfully efficacious in correcting, regulating, and removing all obstruction from whatever cause.

All medical men know, as well as many others that no female can enjoy good health, unless he is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health begins immediately to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptives among young females. Headache, Pain in the Side, Palpitation of the Heart, Loathing of Food, and Disturbed Sleep, do most always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils; and may always be used successfully as a preventive.—Price $1 per box. For sale at 132 Thames street, corner Church st. wet, and at 12 Washington Square, opposite State House. Orders for the trade so addressed will be supplied at lowest manufacturer's prices. NEW AGRICULTURAL SETTLEMENT.

TO ALL WANTING FARMS, A RARE OPPORTUNITY IN A DELIGHTFUL AND HEALTHY CLIMATE 25 MILES SOUTHEAST OF PHILADELPHIA, ON THE CAMDEN AND ATLANTIC RAILROAD, NEW JERSEY.

An old estate consisting of several thousands of acres of productive soil has been divided into Farms of various sizes to suit the purchaser. A population of some Fifteen Hundred, from various parts of the middle States and New England have settled there the past year, improved the places, and raised excellent crops. The price of the land is at the low sum of from $15 to $20 per acre, the soil is of the best quality for the production of Wheat, Clover, Corn, Peaches, Grapes and Vegetables. IT IS CONSIDERED THE BEST FRUIT SOIL IN THE UNION. The place is perfectly secure from frosts—the destructive enemy of the farmer. Crops of grain, grass and fruit are now growing and can be seen. By examining the place itself, a correct judgment can be formed of the productiveness of the land. The terms are made easy to secure the rapid improvement of the land, which is only sold for actual improvement. The result has been, that within the past year, some three hundred houses have been erected, two mills, one steam, four stores, some forty vineyards and Peach orchards, planted, and a large number of other improvements, making it a desirable and active place of business.

THE MARKET,

as the reader may perceive from it location is the BEST IN THE UNION.

Production bringing double the price than in locations away from the city, and more than double the price than the West. It is known that the earliest and best fruits and vegetables in this latitude come from New Jersey, and are annually exported to the extent of millions.

In locating here, the settlers has many advantages. He is within a few hours ride of the great cities of New England and Middle States, he is near his old friends and associations, he is in a settled country where every improvement of comfort and civilization is at hand. He can buy every article he wants at the cheaper price, and sell his produce for the highest, (in the West this is reserved,) he has schools for his children, divine service, and will enjoy an open winter, and delightful climate where fevers are utterly unknown.—The result of the change upon those from the north, has generally been to restore them to an excellent state of health.

In the way of building and improving, lumber can be obtained at the mills at the rate of $10 to $15 per thousand. Bricks from the brick yard opened in the place, good carpenters are at hand, and there is no place in the Union where buildings and improvements can be made cheaper.

The reader will at once be struck with advantages here presented, and ask himself why the property has not been taken up before. The reasons is, it was never thrown in the market; and unless these statements were correct, no one would be invited to examine the land before purchasing. This all are expected to do. They will see land under cultivation, such is the extent of the settlement that they will no doubt, meet persons from their own neighborhood; they will witness the improvement and can judge the character of the population. If they come with a view to settle, they should come prepared to stay a day or two and be ready to purchase, as locations cannot be held un refused.

There are two daily trains to Philadelphia, and to all settlers who improve, THE RAILROAD COMPANY GIVES A FREE TICKET FOR SIX MONTHS, AND A HALF-PRICE TICKET FOR THREE YEARS.

THE TOWN OF HAMMONTON,

In connection with the agricultural settlement, a new and thriving town has naturalarisen, which presents inducements for any kind of business, particularly stores and manufactories. The Shoe business could be carried on in the place and market to good advantage, also cotton business, and manufactura of agricultural implements, or Founderies for casting small articles. The improvement has been so rapid as to insure a constant and permanent increase of business. Town lots of a good size, we do not sell small ones, as it would effect the improvement of the place, can be had at from $100 and upwards.

The Hammonton Farmer, a monthly literary and agricultural sheet, containing full information of Hammonton, can be obtained at 25 cents per annum.

Title indisputable—warrantee deeds given, clear of all incumbrance when money is paid. Route to the land: leave Vine street wharf, Philadelphia for Hammonton by Railroad, at 7 1-2 A. M., or 4 1-2 P. M. Fare 90 cents.—When there inquire for Mr. Byrnes. Boarding conveniences on hand. Parties had better stop with Mr. Byrnes, a principal, until they have decided as to purchasing, as he will show them over the land in his carriage, free of expense. Letters and applications can be addressed to Landes & Byrnes, Hammonton, P. O., Atlantic Co., New Jersey, or S. B. Coughlin, 202 South Fifth Street, Philadelphia. Maps and information cheerfully furnished. jy13 6ms

OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis (Mo) Democrat: Below we publish a letter to Dr. Wood of this city, from a gentlemen in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffer from the press:

BATH, Maine, Jan. 29, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co:

GENTLEMEN: Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite grey, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe, more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty-five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at you service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to answer to the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, the Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally believed. WM. DYER

BROOKFIELD, Jan. 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflamation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly,
J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in Bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium and small; the small holds 1 1-2 a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars a bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion and retails for $3 a bottle.

CAUTION.

Persons living at a distance should be extremely cautious of whom they order Lottery Tickets or Certificates of Packages of Tickets. The country is flooded with bogus and swindling Lotteries: Every inducement is held out to get persons to invest money in them—Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $40,000 head their schemes—with Tickets at One Dollar. $100,000 Capital Prizes are offered, Tickets $5. All such, in every instance, are frauds, and if money is sent to them for Tickets, it is so much thrown away without the shadow of a chance of getting a prize. Beware of all Lotteries where the Capital Prize is unusually large in comparison to the price of Tickets. In every instance where large Prizes are offered for a small cost of Tickets, put it down for a certain fraud.
